Statement of the PU of Istria on the occasion of the campaign

The Istrian police administration responded to the campaign in order to sensitize as many citizens as possible to this issue, in addition to the series of preventive and repressive activities it has been carrying out for many years.

Namely, on the eve of each tourist season, they train tourist workers, lifeguards, security guards and guards in tourist settlements and camps so that they know how they should act if they see suspicious behavior or if one of the guests turns to them for help.
